DUCKLINGS

Infants 1

Hi Duckling Parents,

In the month of September, we continue to have babies learning how to crawl, taking their first steps, and walking on their own. We have also played in the tunnel and done more sensory play. They have all loved it, we really love to see their reactions!

In the month of October James turns 1, yay happy 1st birthday James! This month will be having two weeks of dress up days. Please make sure to check your emails and watch the parent board for when those will be. We are hoping to do lots of fall crafts this month while trying to find a good time with all the babies different sleep schedules.

We are starting to go through all the extra clothes for the kids. We will be sending home any summer clothing and/or clothing that is too small. If you get clothes to take home, please make sure you bring more clothes.

TURTLES

Toddlers

Hello Toddler Families!

In the past month of September, we played outside a lot! We read books about animals and shapes and colors! We sang songs. For example: Five Little Ducks, I had a Tiny Turtle, Crazy Colored Creatures and Baby Bumblebee. We have been having tons of dance parties in the classroom and even started playing The Freeze Game song and playing The Floor is Lava. Hakeem and Dakari started this month! Welcome!

In this next month of October, we will be doing some fun crafts and playing outside before it gets too cold. Within the month of October, we will be having 2 dress up weeks. The first being Spirit Week, the week of the 14th. Second is Colors week with that Thursday (the 31st) being costume day instead of pajama day.

TREE FROGS

Hello again, and welcome to October! I'm so excited for fall and all the fun it brings. We have some exciting things coming up, but first let's recap September. September was another busy and fun month! We said goodbye to Winston as he moved to the Tiger Room, and hello to Ezekiel as he moved up from the Toddler Room. We also welcomed two brand new friends! Welcome, Olive and Noah! With three more friends joining our class, we also gained Miss McLaurin as our second teacher. We have been having a great time getting to know each other and figuring out our new class dynamic!

Last month I mentioned that we were hoping to get a climbing toy. Well, we did! We got a pickler triangle and a see-saw type toy and have been thoroughly enjoying them! They are a great way to use up some of our abundant energy! We've also enjoyed the beautiful weather we've been having. We've had so much fun on the playground this month. We've also had fun indoors and enjoyed an "apple taste test" at the end of the month. There are some special events planned for October! We are very excited for our upcoming field trip to the corn maze. We will also be having Spirit Week from October 14-18, so keep an eye out for more info on that.

As we head further into autumn, cooler weather is approaching, so I just wanted to give a friendly reminder to pack some pants and a jacket in your child's backpack. If you'd like, you can feel free to leave a jacket on your child's classroom hook all week, and then take it home on Friday to be washed. Also, please label your child's items - this will help us to not accidentally mix them up. We appreciate all you do and count it a privilege to partner together in guiding your children through these early years! They truly are a blessing from the Lord! As always, please feel free to reach out with any questions. We look forward to all that October has for us!

Love, Miss Green

Hello

Fall is finally here, goodbye summer! September was a fun month. We enjoyed learning how to spell our names and we are getting very good at it. We are also working on knowing and writing our ABCs. In the mornings something new I have started is sharing what we did over the weekend or the night before...some of the stories are so funny. We didn't get to make it to the back playground much, but we definitely enjoyed the nice cool days on the little playground. Also during the month of September, we got to learn about and taste apples. We tried Granny Smith, Honeycrisp and red delicious!! Most of the kid's favorite was red delicious. in the month of October, we are looking forward to our field trip to the pumpkin patch!! We are also looking forward to dress-up days! I can't wait to see how the kids dress-up.

Dear Parents,

As the air gets cooler and the leaves start to change, we are excited to welcome fall and all the fun that comes with it! Your little ones are already diving into our curriculum, learning new things each day while having lots of fun.

This season, we're focusing on colors, shapes, numbers, and letters. We've started introducing different activities to help the children identify and practice these important basics. Through songs, and hands-on crafts, we are exploring the beauty of fall while building their early learning skills and getting ready for the next step in their educations.

I can't wait to continue this exciting journey of learning and discovery with your children this season.
